

MARYBETH HYLAND

As the Founder and Chief Visionary of SparkVision, and author of Permission to Be Human: The Conscious Leader's Guide to Creating a Values-Driven Culture, MaryBeth Hyland knows that extraordinary success is rooted in the vision, values, and culture crafted by purpose-driven leaders and their tribe. With over a decade of experience, built on knowledge from a BA in Social Work and MS in Nonprofit Management, she's known for her ability to guide individuals and teams to know, own, and live their values. And she does that with the understanding that we all have a deep desire to know and return to our most authentic selves – at work, home, and within. As a certified mediator, mindfulness instructor, and values expert she engages audiences and teams all over the world with her authentic style of facilitation, coaching, and empowerment. Her recent awards include, "Circle of Excellence", "Innovator of the Year", "Top 100 Women", "Civic Engagement Leader" and "Leading Women". She has also been recognized as a leading expert by The Washington Post, The Huffington Post, Forbes, The Wall Street Journal, and more. MaryBeth's personal life's mission is to create spaces where voices are heard, stories are released, and alignment is ignited.
